

If you complete a Graduate Diploma of Applied Finance or a Master of Applied Finance, you can choose to specialise in a particular area of professional practice.

How many subjects do I need to complete?

If you are enrolled in the Graduate Diploma of Applied Finance and wish to undertake a specialisation, you must complete the three (3) required subjects from the appropriate specialisation as indicated in the table below, in addition to the two (2) core subjects (FIN101 and FIN103) and further three (3) electives.

If you are enrolled in the Master of Applied Finance and wish to undertake a specialisation, you must complete the three (3) required subjects from the appropriate specialisation as indicated in the table below, in addition to four (4) core subjects (FIN101, FIN103, FIN201 and KAP001) and a further five (5) electives.

Subject code	Investment Analysis	Corporate Finance	Business Intelligence	Project Management
FIN206 Investment Management	●
FIN330 Mergers and Acquisitions	●	●
FIN338 Project Finance		●
FIN342 Applied Corporate Finance		●
FIN351 The Derivatives Market	●
FIN360 Project Management Fundamentals [#]				●
FIN361 Applied Project Management ^{##}				●
FIN362 Project Risk, Finance and Monitoring ^{###}				●
FIN370 Introduction to Data Analytics [#]			●
FIN371 Applied Business Analytics ^{##}			●
FIN372 Data-driven Design Thinking ^{###}			●

● Subjects available for the specialisation

[#] New subject available for enrolment from Study period 6 2023

^{##} New subject available for enrolment from Study period 1 2024

^{###} New subject available for enrolment from Study period 2 2024